NEWSLETTER | MARCH 2025

Calling Women to Freedom, Fullness, and Fruitfulness in Christ

March is here, and for many that means the season between snow boots and rain boots, when winter isn’t quite ready to release its hold and spring still feels strangely out of reach. The Lenten season is filled with the same sort of tension—we slosh through forty days of quiet reflection while the joy of Resurrection Sunday seems a world away. Yet God asks us to trust Him while we wait.

At Revive Our Hearts, we’re determined not to waste our waiting, and this newsletter is your invitation to join us. With content to strengthen your faith and stories of how (thanks to your support!) the message of freedom, fullness, and fruitfulness is spreading around the world, you’ll be encouraged to trust the Lord in the in-between and always.

Ten Reasons You Can Trust God’s Plan

In her series “Esther: God’s Woman at God’s Time,” Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth walks through the beloved Old Testament account, which offers timeless reminders that Heaven rules and God’s purposes always prevail. These ten quotes from Nancy send one powerful message: that you can trust the Lord—no matter what you’re facing today.

- 1 Even when you can’t see it, God is there. He’s always, always, always at work.
- 2 God sees ahead of what is going to happen. God goes before His people to make provision before we ever get there.
- 3 You are not in the position you are in by accident. “Who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?” (Est. 4:14 NKJV).
- 4 God uses crises to make us aware of our need, to make us desperate for Him, and to turn our hearts toward Him.
- 5 God doesn’t always win the battles the way we would like Him to win them, but He is always ultimately victorious.
- 6 God is able to rule and to overrule the decrees of wicked men. You have to look forward to the end of the story and realize [their prosperity] is short-lived.
- 7 Even when you cannot see God, He is always behind the scenes, always at work fulfilling His purposes. We have a God of providence.
- 8 Not only does God have a plan—God’s plan will not fail.
- 9 God is the Creator, and He is the one who sustains, orders, and rules over all of His creation. He’s still watching over, controlling, and managing the affairs of this universe.
- 10 In the providence of God there are no insignificant details. There are no coincidences. Every atom in this universe is controlled by the God who holds the king’s heart in His hand.

Strengthen your faith in God’s providence as you listen to Nancy teach the full series, “Esther: God’s Woman at God’s Time,” on the Revive Our Hearts podcast at: ReviveOurHearts.com/EstherQ2.

Trusting God's Plan

A six-week study of Esther

Each spring, Jewish people around the world celebrate Purim, an ancient feast commemorating how God delivered the Old Testament Jews from the hand of Haman. As told in the book of Esther, the Lord worked through Queen Esther (a Jewess herself) and her relative Mordecai to bring about this miraculous rescue.

Esther's story is the focus of a beloved Revive Our Hearts Women of the Bible study, now available in English, Spanish, and Portuguese, with a Farsi translation in progress.

Esther: Trusting God's Plan is an invitation for women around the world to:

- Connect with the life of Esther.
- Learn from her story.
- Discover how God's unique design for womanhood, as defined by His Word, should unfold in their own lives.

It's also a wonderful opportunity to invite other women to grow in the freedom, fullness, and fruitfulness that comes from walking with Christ. Esther* is available this month as our thanks for your gift of any amount. Request your copy today by visiting ReviveOurHearts.com/EstherStudy.

I loved co-leading the Esther study in my home. It challenged me to think deeply about the significance of our spheres of influence and reminded me to always be ready for "such a time as this."

—“Pamela”

My daughter has been leading a group of six older teens and young adults from her work through the Esther study. I'm so grateful for these resources that draw us into God's Word, challenge us, and equip us with tools for service.

—“Beth”

Little Girl, Big Purpose

Dannah Gresh will help the girls in your life dig into God's Word with the True Girl Bible study Esther: Becoming a Girl of Purpose. Here's what they'll learn:

God has given little girls a big purpose. Even at a young age, the Bible can help a young lady understand what the Lord desires of her. There's no better place to begin seeking His plans than by studying the life of Esther, who fulfilled her purpose with courage and grace.

1. What is purpose?
2. God will invite you into His plan.
3. When you're discouraged about your purpose, God is not.
4. God's purpose may require you to do things you don't want to do.
5. Nothing and no one can stop God's purpose for your life.
6. God's purpose is worth celebrating!

Help the young women in your life see how they, too, were born “for such a time as this” (Est. 4:14). Order your copy of the True Girl study at ReviveOurHearts.com/EstherTrue.

Reflecting the

Beauty of Womanhood

in Granada, Spain

In early March, Aviva Nuestros Corazones (Revive Our Hearts in Spanish) hosted nearly 1,000 women from Spain, Italy, France, and other nations for a two-day women's conference in Granada, Spain.

Speakers and panelists included Laura Gonzalez de Chavez, director of ANC, Patricia Acebal de Saladín, the host/voice of Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth on the daily Spanish podcast, and author Laura Perry Smalts.

This conference sold out months in advance, fueled by women eager to learn what it means to live out the truth of God's Word and to embrace their identity as women made in His image, uniquely designed to reflect His glory.

"God is at work. As you go from this place, that river of God is going in you and through you to take the beauty and the glory of Christ to your world," Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth encouraged conference attendees in her greeting. "We long for that day when, as Scripture says, the glory of the Lord will cover the earth as the water covers the sea" (Hab. 2:14).

You're part of what God is doing—it may seem small, but one day, it's going to be great.

—Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth
